(Effective: 09/15/2012)

2012 Edition - Construction & Professional Services Manual - Revision 0

The new 2012 Edition of the Commonwealth of Virginia's Construction and Professional Services Manual (CPSM) is effective September 15, 2012.

This current edition of the CPSM and two prior editions are available for viewing or download from the Bureau of Capital Outlay Management's website (<http://bcom.dgs.virginia.gov>).

All applicable DEB Notices issued prior to September 15, 2012 have been incorporated, as appropriate, within the new 2012 Edition. DEB Notices will continue to be used as the method to issue interim updates to the policies, procedures, and guidelines contained within the CPSM. Interim updates applicable to the current 2012 Edition will therefore be those DEB Notices dated September 15, 2012 or later.
